The Russian Embroglio.

From all that we can decipher from the telegrams we conclude that war between England and Russia is not as imminent as was supposed. Russia has really created a sensation in Europe, and throughout the world, by asking for a modification of the treaty of 1856, respecting a fleet in the Black Sea. That she has succeeded in gaining the friendship of the United States, Prussia, and may be Italy, before sending her note to amend the treaty, is beyond a doubt. But, at the same time, it is clear that England, Austria, and Turkey are one in protesting against the demand of Russia. There are signs, however, that the English people are divided in opinion. If Russia should insist on remodelling the treaty, and if Liberal views, such as are entertained by the Stewart Mill school of politicians obtain, there will be no war; but, if Granville's views prevail, there will be one of two things: either the preservation of the treaty of 1856 intact, or a bloody war. The English Cabinet is not, however, a unit on the question. Hence, the result depends to a large extent on the peace or war division of the Imperial Ministry. With so strong a following as Mr. Gladstone has, it is not improbable that he may re-model his Cabinet on either principle; yet it is clear that the Conservatives are determined to force the Government into war, if necessary. With the Conservatives for war, and the Granville wing of the Liberal party for war, we may conclude that the nation as a majority is for war. If such a conclusion be taken at its face, war is inevitable; but the reported refusal of Italy to take part in the war may and doubtless will very materially modify English opinion. Twenty millions of Italians neutral instead of being opposed to Russia must exercise a materali influence on the English Cabinet. Hence we still think that the embroglio will not be more than a paper war,—and that the chances are that Russia may acquire the right to float a fixed number of ships on the Black Sea without blood shed. In case of a war with Russia, British Columbia is not over safe. There is but a small naval force here; whilst the Russians are reported to have a large fleet in the China Seas. It is true that our Chinese squadron would watch their movements; still we would be exposed to a descent of a Russian fleet on our coasts. At present, however, we do not entertain the opinion that a war will break out between England and Russia. The Crimean war cost the English 40,000 lives and £100,000,000 sterling, and yet the Russians are still seeking an outlet to the Mediterranean. The belief is that they will continue to do so till they succeed. Hence that belief is likely to influence the English mind,—and may be potent to produce such a modification in the treaty as Russia demands.

Responsible Government and the Franchise.

We were highly amused by a paragraph in the Colonist the other morning, in which it was gravely asserted that Responsible Government was in danger, because Bunster was elected for Nanaimo. It was maintained that because Bunster and DeCosmos were for Responsible Government, there was no hope of getting it. But the most ludicrous part of the matter was that the sheet in question never said a word about Dr. Helmcken distinctly opposing it as his personal opinion. The truth of the matter was, however, that Mr. Robson, the editor of the Colonist, had been defeated for Nanaimo; and hence, political principles that were advocated over and over again before he came to the country must fail!! It would be an unhappy day indeed, if the inauguration of Responsible Government depended on the ex-member for New Westminster, particularly when we recollect that it was only in 1867 that he voted against Representative Institutions in part, without Responsible Government. Now, however, the Colonist shows signs to oppose not only Responsible Government, but also an elective Council, the Terminus, and a liberal franchise. According to several articles in that journal, we are not safe unless the franchise is confined to householders!! No matter how intelligent, how moral, nor how rich a man may be, unless he is a householder or freeholder, he will not be allowed to vote, if the Colonist can have its way. We have now a very good franchise, so far as British subjects are concerned. With registration and a few other modifications, it will answer every purpose, and secure to all who pay taxes, directly or indirectly, and all who are liable to bear arms in the defence of the State, a voice in the affairs of the country. Anything less would be oppression, the Colonist to the contrary, notwithstanding.

MAGIC SOAP.

Directions for Using Robinson's Magic Soap for doing a Large Family Washing in Two Hours, of Five or Six Dozen Pieces.

1. Cut up fine a bar of the Soap, and put one-half of it into your boiler with sufficient water to cover wel your white clothes to be washed, and let the Soap dissolve; then put your clothes in, stirring them, and let them just come to a boil; then pour out clothes and water into a tub and let them soak twenty or thirty minutes, stirring them round in the tub occasionally to loosen the dirt. Such articles as collars, wristbands or any ar icle very dirty, should be rubbed through the hands a little while soaking in order to thoroughly loosen the dirt before boiling.

2. While your clothes are soaking put the other half of your cut Soap into your boiler, with sufficient clean water to boil, and let it be heating. After your clothes have soaked wring them out well and put into your boiling water, and let boil from 5 to 10 minutes; then rinse, blue and hang out to dry. If the above directions are followed, we will guarantee your clothes clean and white.

3. For your colored and woollen clothes use the same water you soaked and boil your white clothes with, only heating it up again, and pour it over your colored and woollen clothes, and let soak the same as your white clothes, also rubbing them through your hands while soaking, if very dirty. Then rinse in clear water, warm as your hands will bear, and you will thus accomplish a large washing in two hours.

By cutting up a bar of this Soap into two gallons water, and let boil until thoroughly dissolved, and then leave to cool, you will have two gallons of beautiful SOFT SOAP, as good as Common Soap for general house purposes.

PASSENGERS.

Per stmr CALIFORNIA from PORTLAND—Mrs M A Phelps and child, Miss M M Phelps, Mrs B Temple, J Pemlee, William Anderson, Wm McGuffin, Mrs Geeason J H Kinkead, 4 Chinamen.

MARRIED.

In Portland, Oregon, on Sunday the 13th inst, Capt. John Hayes, late of the steamer California, to Miss Elizabeth Mountain.

Miss Annie Pixley's Benefit.—This talented young actress took a benefit at the Theatre on Saturday evening, when the house was crowded to excess with the elite of the city. His Excellency the Governor and Mrs. Musgrave were present. The performance commenced with the splendid comedy, in two acts, entitled "His Last Legs," in which Mr Melville, as OCallaghan, performed his part to perfection. Messrs. Thornton, Vincent, and Dennis also played well. Miss Annie Pixley, as Julia, and Miss Minnie, as Mrs. Montague, acted their parts to perfection, as they always do. In the interlude, the Misses Pixley sang the beautiful duett "Larboard Watch," which was well rendered, and certainly merited the encore which it received. The comic songs by Tony Ward were sung in excellent style, and brought the house down. The evening's entertainment concluded with the local burlesque entitled "Ye Cruise of ye Lovely Polly, or the Bold Buccaneer and the Pretty Little Deer." This piece was so poorly played, as a whole, that the audience were unable to judge of its merits. We hope more pains will be taken with it next time, as an act of justice to its author. This evening, the performance will conclude with the laughable two-act comedy entitled "Crossing the Line," and we hope to see the Theatre as well filled as it was on Saturday. All those who have not heard the Misses Pixley sing ought to go this evening, when Miss Minnie will again sing her famous charcoal song.

From Nanaimo.—The steamer Sir James Douglas arrived from Comox, Nanaimo and way places on Saturday afternoon with about 25 passengers and a large freight, consisting of 10 head of cattle, 20 fat hogs and several coops of chickens, besides a large lot of farm produce. The bark Shooting Star arrived at Nanaimo on Friday from San Francisco to load with coal. The schooner Ocean Pearl is loading stone at New Castle Island for San Francisco. Preparations are being made at Nanaimo for the trial of Jim and Quanime, who are in jail accused of the murder of Hamilton. The trial will take place on Thursday next. The Good Templars held a tea meeting in their new lodge room on Thursday evening last. H. M. S. Sparrowhawk is lying in Nanaimo harbor. It is expected she will remain there for about two weeks. At Comox everything is quiet among the settlers. When the SirJames Douglas was lying there, a farmer was bringing a lot of produce off to the steamer in a canoe, when it unset, precipitating the occupant into the water, who lost all his produce and barely escaped being drowned. He was floating on a butter box for about two hours. The Douglas leaves to-morrow morning for the East Coast Settlements.

The Alhambra—Mr. Frank Richards having closed the Alhambra on Saturday night and kindly allowed his musicians to play for Miss Annie Pixley's benefit ought to have a full house to-night. There is a splendid bill offered, with new songs and dances by the troupe. Miss Susie Lee and Miss Bensel will amuse the audience with several new songs, also that splendid ballad singer Mr. Foster will give one or two of his favorite ballads in his usual good style. Mr. Rhoades will also give several of his favorite solos on the banjo. The evenings performance will conclude with the celebrated Shoo-Fly Can Can, which created such roars of laughter on Friday night. The admission is only 50 and 75 cents. Every person ought to go as there is no better place in the city to spend an agreeable evening.

New York, Nov. 9.—A letter from General Hasen, dated at the headquarters of the Crown Prince of Prussia, October 20, says: "Paris will certainly fall in good time. The Prussians are bringing 2,000 siege guns; not a gun will be fired on the city until enough are in position to make it madness for the French to accept the fire." The General says the stories of sufferings in Alsace and Lorraine are the grossest exaggerations.

Mainland Items.—From the Guardian of Saturday, the 19th inst., we glean the following items:—A small frame house, situate at the corner of Columbia street, New Westminster, and a portion of the plank road leading to Armstrong's mill, was destroyed by fire. .....An Indian, who was assisting in loading a vessel at Burrard Inlet, had his hand severely smashed by a spar turning on it..... A meeting has been held at Samass on the Terminus question, and resolutions adopted.

Complimentary Benefit.—Mr. Charles Thornton, the business manager of the Theatre, and a talented actor, has been tendered a complimentary benefit, which will take place on Wednesday evening, at the Theatre. We hope to see Mr. Thornton have a good benefit, as he has met with a great many adverses since he has been in the city.

Nanaimo-Comox Vote.—There were cast in Comox, for Bunster, 23 votes; for Robson, 15. Majority for Bunster, 8. In Nanaimo, Bunster polled 91 votes; Robson, 78. Majority for Bunster, 13. On a scrutiny taking place, there were 15 votes struck from Bunster's list, and 5 from Robson's. This left Bunster with a majority of 11 over Robson, for the whole district.

An Actress.—Miss Nellie Cummings, a well-known actress of this city, and formerly a member of the Bates' Dramatic Company, is among the passengers on board the Oriflamme. It is quite probable that she will be engaged by the management and appear at Oro Fino Theatre.—Portland Bulletin.

From Barclay Sound.—The schooner Alert, Capt. Christenson, arrived from Barclay Sound yesterday afternoon, bringing as passengers the parties who have been there whaling. They have been unsuccessful, and returned with their boats, &c. The Indians are all quiet on the coast.

Lake School.—At a special meeting convened, pursuant to the provisions of the Common School Ordinance, a per-capita tax, of two dollars on all male residents within the district, was adopted, for the support of the school for the current year.

A Narrow Escape.—Yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock, Mr. Phelps, pressman in the Standard office discovered a lot of smoke in the office recently occupied by the Colonist. On an entrance being effected it was discovered that a box placed near the fire place, in one of the rooms was on fire, also the floor underneath, and in a few minutes more the whole building would have been in flames. A few buckets of water were poured upon the fire which soon extinguished it. During the past few days, a boy from the Colonist office was engaged in burning a large quantity of paper and rubbish in a very careless manner, so as to alarm the neighbors, who thought the building was on fire several times. On Saturday he was warned about it and took the rubbish down stairs into Langley street, put it into a barrel and set it on fire. One of the Fire Wardens had to be called to get it extinguished. The fire in the box must have been smouldering since Saturday, and was very fortunate that it was discovered at the time it was, or else the whole building would have been destroyed.

From the Mainland.—The steamer Enterprise, Capt. Swanson, arrived from New Westminster on Saturday evening. She brought 30 passengers and 12 head of cattle from Similkameen, which were taken on board at Langley. Among the passengers were Mrs. O'Riely, Mrs. Clarke C. Oppenheimer, Messrs. Allison and Van Bremer. The wagon road above Yale which is blocked up will be repaired in a few days.

From Portland.—The steamer California, Capt. N. L. Rogers, arrived form Portland via Port Townsend and San Juan Island yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock with a few passengers, among whom were Mr. Rothschild and Mr Kincaid. The California will discharge her freight this morning and leave for Sitka at 4 o'clock p. m via Nanaimo. She will be back in about 10 days.

Married.—By the arrival of the California from Portland, we learn of the marriage of Capt. John Hayes, late of the N. P. T. Co's steamer California, who was married on Sunday, 13th inst. in Portland, to Miss Elizabeth Mountain. We wish the happy couple a pleasant voyage through life, with health, happiness and prosperity.

Thousands of letters addressed to Prussian soldiers at the front, go back to the writers in Germany with this sentence stamped on the envelope: "Adrusat est todt." [The person addressed is dead.] What untold anguish for some true heart may be doled out every time those words are inscribed upon a letter!

On Dit.—It is rumored that a benefit will take place at the Theatre this day week, in aid of the "Captain" relief Fund, when the Victoria and Naval Amateurs will tender their services, to perform in the new burlesque, assisted by the Pixley Sisters.

Sentenced.—The man Kelly who pleaded guilty in the Police Court three days ago, to stealing a chain from an Indian women, was sentenced in the Police Court on Saturday to three months imprisonment with hard labor.

Passed Down.—The bark Corsair, Capt. Saunders, lumber laden from Burrard Inlet, bound to China, passed down yesterday. She discharged her pilot and proceeded immediately to sea.

The German organ of the Freemasons, the Bauhutte, states that the collections of the English lodges for the families of German soldiers in the field have reached $350,000.

Exporting Stock.—Dr. Tolmie sold and shipped to Puget Sound last week two Short-horned Bull Calves. They are considered the best breed of stock in these parts.

Provisioning.—It is rumored that H. M. S. Sparrowhawk will take in four months' provisions, so as to be prepared for an emergency in case of a war with Russia.

Favors.—We are indebted to Purser Goodhue of the California for customary favors.

SPECIAL TO THE DAILY STANDARD.

SATURDAY'S DISPATCHES.

British Columbia.

Chilliwack, Nov. 19.—Mr. John McCutchen, telegraph operator at Chilliwack, B. C., while out repairing the line, early this morning, had his leg broken by his horse falling upon him. He was married only a few days ago.

Yale, Nov. 19.—The nomination of candidates for the Legislative Council took place to-day, at 11:30 a. m. Mr. Robt. Smith, of Lytton, and Mr. C. F. Cornwall, of Ashcroft, are the candidates. Show of hands was declared in favor of Mr. Cornwall, by a majority of one. A poll was demanded for Mr. Smith, who is confident of being returned. The election takes place on the 30th inst.

Europe.

London, Nov. 17.—Russia is conciliatory in tone but will insist on the revision of the treaty of 1856. The Ottoman Government will make an energetic reply.

The Tribune correspondent telegraphed from Berlin on the 17th, that in official circles the peaceful solution of the violation of the Black Sea question is looked for.

It is admitted that an understanding exists between Russia and Prussia, and in case of a war they will co-operate.

Liege, Belgium Nov. 17—The Journal de Liege says: Russia is about to propose a conference of the powers at Brussels, to revise the 14th article of the treaty of Paris, of 1856, and that Austria and Italy are reported as favoring the project.

Berlin, Nov. 17.—The newspapers of this city keep silent on the Russian question, and this is a cause of considerable speculation as to how far Bismarck may be a party to the demands of Russia.

The Vienna correspondent of the National Zeitung says: Austria is determined to be an ally of England, should hostilities arise between the latter and Russia. The Turkish Government has proposed to Austria that a European Congress be called to consider the proposals of Russia.

A correspondent semi-officially, believes the Powers will consent to modify the treaty of 1856.

Russia is conciliatory and relies on the present peaceful attitude of the English ministry to prevent war with Russia.

The Vienna Free Press is violent in its language, and appeals to the honor and dignity of England, giving as its opinion that England is bound to consider any repudiation of the treaty as a casaus belli.

London, Nov. 17.—The Tribune's correspondent at St. Petersburg, telegraphs that the Russian note is universally approved of there. All the papers contain articles expressing a hope of peaceful results, but stating that the country is ready for war, if necessary. A national subscription, to build a Black Sea Fleet is demanded. The Imperial ukase signed yesterday, and published to-day in the Official Journal, orders the Russian army to be recruited on the Prussian plan.

The Morning Post, in an editorial, says: The cause of France now becomes the cause of the European neutral States, and they are bound to assist her to obtain peace and leave her, or aid her to continue war, in order to hold the Prussian engaged, while England, Austria, Italy and Turkey force Russia to intercession, of either. Prussia must sign an easy peace to liberate her forces. France detaining them, will show herself once more savior of Europe.

The Standard has a bitter attack on Russia and Prussia, who, it declares, his conspired to get Russia to commit an act of perfidy and violence, and with an audacious contempt of public morality, introducing chaos and a series of endless wars. It proclaims that the existence of no English Ministry would be worth an hours' purchase, that dare not give the right answer to this most insolent challenge. The Daily News will publish an article to-morrow, saying that the power which discards its most solemn pledges, as soon as an opportunity offers, goes far to place itself beyond the range of diplomatic intercourse, and the nation which does not acknowledge the force of a treaty can only be dealt with by force of arms, if it is to be dealt with at all.

Lord Napier of Abyssinian fame, is to be appointed commander-in-chief of the British army.

London, Nov. 19.—John Stuart Mill. in the Times this morning, protests against England embarking in war with Russia on any existing innovations, especially as Russia demands some consideration. Mr. Fresd writes urging the Government to change front rather than go to war.

Gortzcakoff, in a dispatch to Bruscow, Oct. 20, says England would never consent to leave her shores to a treaty which no power respects. Why should Russia maintain the balance of power disregarded by all other States.

The Post says Russia must recant or embark in a war ensuring humiliation.

St. Petersbug, Nov. 19.—The Gates newspaper denies that Russia offered neutrality to Prussia on condition that the treaty of 1856 be set aside, but that she desired a modification of the treaty. While Russia is willing to submit her pretentions to a conference, Prussia will only consent if her relations with France are not desirous.

London, Nov. 19.—The Prince of Wales, representing the views of the Queen, is understood to have expressed to the Cabinet his disapproval of Granville's hasty reply to Russia.

Paris balloon letters say Trochu intends shortly to force from the city about 100,000 half starved citizens for whom he cannot longer provide food.

London, Nov. 18.—It is rumored that the Austrian Government has ordered the departure of a large number of troops to the Turkish border, in order that the country may be ready to co-operate with other powers in the event of the breaking out of hostilities. Rumors come thick and fast, but the general impression is that nothing can avert war.

The Prussians have not retired beyond Artheny, as at first reported.

Orleans, Nov. 14.—The Prussians have retired from Artenay. The French have constructed heavy works in front of the railway junction outside Orleans. Ten thousand men are employed. Boats are collected at Orleans to cross the river in case of necessity for retreat.

The requisitions of the Prussians at Orleans will be £700,000 sterling.

Dispatches from Vienna state that American policy is suspected to be in favor of Russia, on the Eastern question; and that Austria has sent a firm reply to St. Petersburg, and also to Berlin.

New York, Nov. 19.—A Berlin dispatch says rumors of a doubtful character are in circulation, to the effect that the capitulation of Paris is imminent. It is also rumored that the administration of the commissariat is busily preparing to receive a large French force.

In view of the recent decimation of the armies of France by disease and battle the Government has been forced to announce that the next levy of recruits will be in the proportion of six to every thousand of the population, instead of four, as formerly.

London, Nov. 19.—Dispatches from Tours states that England, with the approval of the Provisional Government, has renewed her proposals for an armistice, based upon pecuniary war compensation, razing of frontier fortresses and neutral isolation of Alsace and Lorraine, the Great Powers guaranteeing the fulfilment of these conditions by any future French Government. A congress is to assemble to settle these questions, and also to deliberate on the Eastern question.

The Spectator says the armament of Malta and Gibraltar is to be hastened.

The port and channel fleets are to go to the Levant.

In a sortie from Montmedy on Wednesday, by two companies of Mobiles, all were killed or taken prisoners.

The Prussians now confine the bombardment to the fortress.

London, Nov. 18.—It is said that the violations of the treaty of 1856 are complained of by Russia as follows:—The cruise of the Prince of Wales in Enzineein an English frigate. A similar trip by Bulwer. The appearance of an Austrian squadron at Vienna when the Emperor was there. The voyage of the Sultan in a Turkish frigate. Against the latter act the Russian envoy protested at the time, but ineffectually.

The Times says Russia places herself in the position of a public enemy.

Thomas Carlyle writes 2½ columns of solid type, in the Times, in justification of Prussia's policy as founded on solid practical prudene.

The French gunboat Oznard is repairing and coaling at Yarmouth.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

Europe.

Vienna, Nov. 18.—The Presse regrets that the mistaken pride of the French Government, which, having asked an armistice, objected to the reasonable demands of Prussia.

Berlin, Nov. 18.—The Prussian press claims to be able to demonstrate from Napoleon's secret correspondence, formed at St. Cloud, that the war against Prussia was prepared before the Hohen-Zollern incident. Two letters, to that purport, were found, dated in June last.

The siege of Longuy and Montmedy is imminent.

Sorties from Meziers have been repulsed by the first Prussian infantry.

Rumors of Von Beusts resignation are discredited by the Vienna official journals, which pronounce the facts that rumors are looked on as untrue.

Vienna, Nov. 18.—The Presse confirms the identity of the English and Austrian notes to the Czar.

London, Nov. 18.—A special Washington dispatch says Secretary Fish will soon be succeeded in the Cabinet by Gen. Butler.

Versailles, Nov. 18.—King William, today, telegraphed to the Queen at Berlin, that the Grand Duke of Mecklemberg, yesterday, repulsed the enemy along the whole line near Breux. Gen. Truskow at the same time captured Dreux, and many prisoners. The enemy were pursued in the direction of Lemans.

London, Nov. 18.—A telegram from Brussels, to day, says: Yesterday, the division of Mecklemburg advanced on the road leading from Hordaa to Dreux, and occupied the latter town, meeting with but slight resistance from the people.

The French army, commanded by Perick, was marching to join the army of the Loire.

A hard fight is going on upon the road from Angerville to Etapes.

A dispatch to the Manchester Guardian says that the army of the Loire is thirty miles from Paris.

Two Bremen ships, from New York for Bremen, were captured by the French cruisers and taken into Brest.

A Herald cable telegram, dated Berlin, Nov. 17th, says that if the important preparations which the Germans are making are successful, Paris is expected to fall in two weeks.

The Russian question is received here as a matter in which Prussia should decline to meddle with. It is believed generally that Russia will gain a point. Prussia is apparently in harmony with Russia on the Eastern question.

The final arrangements with Bavaria have been completed. Her military position in the German Confederation is the same as that of Saxony. Wurtemburg will be bound to submit. The significant fact is that the recent elections, even in Democratic districts, all the Democrats were defeated who had taken ground against the annexation of Alsace and Lorraine.

The special correspondent of the Herald, writing from Lille, Nov. 17th, says, great activity is evident in the army of the north for the past three days, and there is good reason to believe that the concentration of the forces is about to take place, with the object of marching to the relief of Paris, by moving eastward and endeavoring to make a junction with the army of the Loire, between Fontainbleau and Creteil. The Guard National will be left to defend the fortified towns.

It is rumored that the army of the north is 120,000 strong, but can only locate ninety-five thousand.

Evidence exists everywhere that hopes are entertained by the country people that the Orleanists will be restored. They believe that Count de Paris, at the head of 20,000 men, could march triumphantly through the department, and gain everywhere the adhension of the people.

Advices from Paris by way of Belgium, represent that the citizens, though they condemn the Government for rejecting an armistice and demand the convocation of the National Assembly.

M. Renal, in the journal De Bales, writes that in spite of hostilities the delegates can get here within eight days. The press and people are urging the authorities to take action to this end.

The Independence Belge objects to keeping in Belgum prisoners who are recovered from their wounds.

Lille, Nov. 18.—The garrison of La Fernalle made a brilliant sortie and relieved the town of Terginer, which was sorely pressed by the enemy. The besiegers lost several hundred killed and wounded.

London, Nov. 18.—A special telegram from Tours, Nov 17th, has the following: General Palladaines has repeated his stratgetic movements which secured his late victory at Orleans, and has accomplished another important success, while holding the German force at Toury, by threatening them in front with a force equal to their own. He has swung round his left wing, moving at the same time; while the corps from Chartres, Angerville, Athon and St. Hilan marched to Etemps, where the corps paused, by the movement of Palladaines to thrust himself between the Duke of Mecklemburg and Paris, while also encircling the German army in front of the right flank and the rear. While this was going on the Germans, seeing the design, commenced retreating from Tournay nortward, on the road leading to Angerville, to a point twelve miles south of Etampes. Some fighting occurred, resulting in an advantage to the French, who everywhere greatly out-numbered the enemy. Palladaine's vanguard is now 22 miles due south of Versailles.

The goverament at Tours has information to the effect that the advance army of Prince Fredrick Charles will only reach Auxere today, ten days march from Tournay.

The journal de St. Prtersburg declares that Russia will not prove unwilling to submit her demands to a Congress, if it can be held. It denies that the Russian note meant an abrogation of the entire treaty. Turkey, it says, is threatened with an internal invader, and intervention is now necessary.

Florence, Nov. 18.—Dispatches have been received by the Italian Cabinet from Ali Pasha, Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs, protesting in eloquent and energetic terms against Russia's proposed invasion of her treaty of obligation.

London, Nov. 18.—A special correspondent of the Tribune telegraphs from Berlin that it is stated on diplomatic authority, from St. Petersburg, that Russia has large bodies of troops massed on Vistia, and farther south, and armed vessels built on the Black Sea.

London, Nov. 18.—Dispatches from Mr. Fish to Moran, concerning the Alabama claims, arrived to-day. Lord Granville being out of town the dispatch could not be communicated to him. The contents, up to this morning, was unknown to the public. In circles where the fact of the arrival of the dispatch is known, great consternation prevails as it is presumed that Russia and the United States have a secret understanding.

Vienna, Nov. 18.—The general belief is that the Russia movement is really a demonstration only intended to work in the interest of the Prussians, in order that the world may have something else to watch besides the operations of Prussia in France. It is believed that public opinion in Europe now alone delays the bombardment of Paris, while doubts are entertained of the eventual issue through the Eastern question. It is believed that the present imbroglio will lead to war. The note in reply to Gortzechakoff's letter, is conciliatory and expresses satisfaction at the peaceful declaration of Russia.

London, Nov. 19.—A dispatch from Munich, on Thursday, says, the negotiations that were carried on at Versailles have been finally concluded. The treaties are to be signed in a few days. The constitution of the bond has undergone some modifications. Bavaria is allowed to enter the Confederation on her own terms.

Rumors continue of a proposed concentrated attack on the Prussian position before Paris, by the French, attended by a sortie from the city. The time fixed for this grand movement is to be next Monday or Tuesday.

Telegrams from Tours, to-day, says that rumors are afloat of a diaster to the army of the Loire. No particulars received.

Vienna, Nov. 19.—In the Riechstadt, today, the Ministry carried an address to the Throne by a large majority.

The journals of this city are anxiously waiting for the Russian-Austrian reply to Prussia's note. It is expected to reach St. Petersburg to-day. The resignation of Potocki's Cabinet is expected in a day or two, but it is denied that any such action is contemplated.

London, Nov. 19.—A Herald's cable telegram from Florence, on the 18th, says that great excitement prevails over the war question, in regard to Russia's position on the treaty of 1856. Popular enthusiasm is in favor of adherence to the cause of Russia. Reports that the Ministry is resolved not to take joint action with England and Austria is well received. The position taken by the Cabinet is understood to be a determination to hold entirely aloof from complication that may grow out of the question. The Government will have enough to do in harmonizing the new state of affairs at Rome. Official papers state that reports are entirely unfounded. They were raised by agents of Austria for selfishness, and it is certain Italy's position will be that of entire neutrality. Disdatches from Florence state that the Italian Government has certainly declined to join in the diplomatic move against Russia.

A Herald special says: The war like feeling prevails all over England. An important division exists in the Cabinet on the Russian question, which is likely to lead to a dissolution of the Ministry. Granville persists that England must now put down her foot firmly, or forever give up her voice in European affairs. He holds that the present attitude of Russia means the future, if not immediate persecution of her long cherished design on the East. The present movement is the only time when England can hope to resist successfully the policy against which heretofore she has fought at a great sacrifice of life and treasurer.

Lowe and Cardwell have positively arranged themselves against war on the present issue. Conservatives are about to call a meeting in London, to consider crisis, in view of the early convocation of Parliament.

Gladstone hesitates to connect himself for war, or against it, on the present provocation. A bitter feeling prevails in Russia, in consequence of Gortschakoff's dispatch, which is considered as assuming a direct object without war.

Florence, Nov. 19.—The collective note of the Great Powers to Russia, is still under the consideration of the Italian Government.

California.

San Francisco, Nov. 19.—The latest Liverpool quotations give the price of California wheat, this morning, at 11s. 8d.

DR. CHING FUN—A CARD—EDITOR STANDARD:—Through the medium of your paper I want to state the very great good that has been done me by Dr. Ching Fun of this city, next door Kwong Lee & Co. For 24 years I suffered with neuralgia on the brain, which baffled the skull of three first-class American physicians. Latterly bronchitis attacked my right lung, and my eyes became awfully inflamed. Despairing of ever being cured I placed myself as a last resort in the hands of Dr. Ching Fun, and after five months treatment I am a well man and feel that I cannot sound the eminent Chinese gentleman's praises too loudly, so that all my countrymen similarly affected may visit him and find relief. Respectfully,
JOHN HENTON, of Kentucky, U. S.
